

Kids Storytime with Miss Amanda

This is perfect for preschoolers. We've got a variety of themes online that you can watch and enjoy at your leisure. Contact your branch for your free Storytime crafts. New weekly storytime Tuesdays online at our Youtube channel!

Kid's Craft by Kaitlyn

Take and Make Crafts with Kaithlyn: Twine Tree. Pick up your FREE supplies at your library branch starting November 26.

Miss Amanda's Lego Challenge

Watch and follow along to make this month's character of Pokemon! Snap a pic of your creation, email it to the Midhurst branch and you will receive a FREE Lego prize!!

Tween BookClub

Join us for an online Tween Bookclub! Grades 6-8 are welcome to join our fun and interactive Bookclub. The 3rd Thursday of each month tweens can pick up their book and mystery activity package at the library.

Adults

Simcoe Author Talk Series

Ben Philippe, author of: Sure, I'll Be Your Black Friend. Philippe reflects on his role as "the Black friend" (the person white people turn to for insight into Black life), pop culture, and the immigrant experience. Register for the Zoom link by calling 705 737-5650. Wednesday, November 16th, 7pm

Creative Seniors on Zoom

Make a cozy scarf without knowing how to knit or crochet. Please contact your local branch to register and to pick up your free Knotted Scarf Kit. Thank you to the Ontario Trillium Foundation for their generous support. Tuesday, November 30, 1-2 pm

The Good Food Box is back at the Elmvale Library

The Good Food Box It's a delicious, healthy and cost-effective bulk purchasing program. Place orders at the Elmvale Library before the 7th of the month and pick up your order the fourth Tuesday of the month, $16 per box. Cash only.

Silent Auction Fundraiser

Get your holiday shopping done early! Items will be on display at the Elmvale and Midhurst Branch. Please note when full price is offered on an item it will be considered sold and can be picked up immediately. November 1st - November 30th (ends at 8 pm)

